The Model of Being and its Universal Laws

Introduction

- Consciousness determines experience
- The old worldview (The Old Story of Science)
- The new worldview (The New Story of Science)

A. The fourfold aspect of holistic philosophy

- I. The object of investigation: the whole
- II. The holistic method of investigation: holistic science
  - holistic definition of science
  - elements
  - categories vs. randomness
  - law
  - system vs. linear logic
  - structure/structuralism vs. atomism
  - dimensions/dimensionalism vs. reductionism
  - cybernetics vs. causality
  - evolution/holism
- III. The method of holistic awareness
- IV. Holistic self-intelligence
  - information
  - holistic consciousness
  - divine philosophy (theology; holistic science; divine medicine – problem solving; holistic philosophy)

B. Christian Science fulfills the fourfold aspect of holistic philosophy.

- I. The object of investigation: God (theology)
- II. The holistic method of investigation: Christ Science
  - Science, divinely defined
  - elements: ideas
  - categories: 3 categories of capitalized terms
  - law: interrelation of holistic categories
  - system: the Model of Being (the Chart)
  - structure and restructuring
  - dimensionalism: hierarchy of structures
  - divine cybernetics

- evolution; aim and meaning: divine Principle, Love
- B. Christian Science fulfills the fourfold aspect of holistic philosophy.

III. The method of divine awareness

- intellectual and spiritual
- Christ-spirit
- the Mind of Christ
- the language of Spirit (tonality = the new tongue)

IV. The relationship of Science to the sciences

- what are the sciences?
- what is Science?
- the Principle of all principles
- the impact of Science on all the other sciences
- the big bang (atomic action is Mind)
- the equipollence of God
- the laws of nature are the laws of Spirit
